

An annual three-week program for Chinese officials, delivered in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand.

The aim of the program is to develop productive relationships between high level public officials of Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and China.

CHINA ADVANCED LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (CALP)

OVERVIEW

The program has been operational since 2011 and is made possible due to ANZSOG's relationship with the Organization Department of the Chinese Communist Party.

The program is expected to enhance the management and leadership capacity of senior public servants and contribute to improving administrative governance in China.

More specifically the program is focussed on:

- > Increasing participants' competencies and capacities in key areas of public management
- > Enhancing participants' leadership skills and understanding of the role of leadership in government
- > Equipping participants with knowledge and skills for organisational change
- > Creating an active network of reform-minded individuals in senior levels of the public service who have a commitment to lifelong learning
- > Providing practical learning within a rigorous academic framework
- > Strengthening the Australia-China relationship by building institutional linkages

Who are our participants?

Up to 25 senior officials in China are carefully selected by ANZSOG's program partner, the Organization Department of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China.

The Organization Department occupies a unique role in the hierarchy of the Chinese government – it oversees appointments of all key positions within the administration.

Previous delegations have included Vice-Ministers from the Central Government, Party Secretaries, City Mayors, and Directors-General.

The program is tailored to the needs of the the Organization Department. Other benefits include:

1

Opportunity to learn from the experiences of Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand on leadership, policy and public administration issues

2

Connection between senior Chinese decision-makers from central / provincial governments with Australian and Aotearoa New Zealand counterparts
