

A two-week intensive in-country program that provides an opportunity for Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand senior public officials to gain a deeper understanding of China.

CHINA RECIPROCAL PROGRAM (CRP)

OVERVIEW

The program covers several major cities, introduces participants to senior Chinese officials, and explores key contemporary issues around the environment, industry and social policy of the Chinese system of government.

The CRP is the first and only program tailored for CEO's and deputy CEO's (or their equivalents) initiated by the Chinese Government. Senior Australian and Aotearoa New Zealand officials visit China to learn about policy, economic and social issues impacting on the nation.

Other features of the program include:

Multi-city program including Beijing and Shanghai as well as a minimum of two additional cities

Visits with high level Communist Party officials at Zhongnanhai, central headquarters for the Communist Party of China and the State Council of China

Lectures from leading experts on China and senior political leaders on key contemporary issues such as the environment, industry and social policy

High level access to sites of key business innovators and state owned enterprises.

Participants and key people

Program Director:
Professor Allan Fels AO

Professor Kerry Brown

Dr. Jamie Greenbaum

The program is aimed at senior executives at the deputy head of agency level or above from across Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand.

What are the benefits?

1

Enhanced appreciation of opportunities for Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand in working with China

2

Improved confidence in dealing with Chinese counterparts in their fields of work

3

Knowledge and awareness of the cultural, economic and diplomatic challenges facing China

4

Opportunity to learn alongside public sector peers and participate in counterpart exchanges in China

5

Membership of an esteemed alumni network of former CRP participants across Australian and Aotearoa New Zealand governments

To enquire about ANZSOG's International programs, please contact us at international@anzsog.edu.au

ANZSOG.EDU.AU

