

A week long immersive program delivered across jurisdictions in Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand.

The aim of the program is to develop a successful long-term and productive relationship between high level public officials of Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and India.

INDIA ADVANCED LEADERSHIP PROGRAM (IALP)

OVERVIEW

Inaugerated in 2013, the India Advanced Leadership Program is a unique collaboration between ANZSOG, Government of India's Department of Personnel and Training, the NSW Government, the Victorian Government and the Aotearoa New Zealand Government.

The Department of Personnel and Training is the coordinating agency of the Central Government of India in personnel matters concerning recruitment, training, career development and staff welfare.

The focus of the program includes:

- > Leadership and strategic thinking
- > Strategic relations
- > Developing positive and productive relationship between countries
- > Education, health infrastructure policies and initiatives.

Who are our participants?

→ Participants can include Senior public officials from the Indian Government, including Secretary, Additional Secretary and Joint Secretary level officers.

Up to 25 Senior public officials are carefully selected by ANZSOG's program partner, The Department of Personnel and Training of the Central Government of India.

The program is tailored to the needs of the Government of India's Department of Personnel and Training, using ANZSOG's unique networks to create a program that gives participants a chance to hear from current and former politicians and senior public servants, as well as learning from leading public administration academics. Other benefits include:

1

Participants engaging at the highest level with representatives from all governments

2

Connection between senior Indian decision-makers from central / provincial governments with Australian counterparts

3

Increased leadership capability in Indian public service

There are now more than 140 ANZSOG IALP alumni in senior positions within India's public services
