Professional Learning Program

Developing Policy Acumen

Start your policy career on strong foundations

If you're new to government policy-making, or looking to hone your policy acumen, this one-day workshop is for you.

Throughout the day's activities, we'll demystify how government works, explore the context in which ministers must make decisions and guide you through the key aspects of policy-making strategy and practice.

You'll finish the workshop with the tools to navigate policy design and development with greater confidence and impact.

Enjoy an interactive learning experience

Examine case studies and participate in class discussions and small-group sessions.

Nail the basics

Explore the key policy-making concepts, including public value and co-design, that form an essential part of a policy practitioner's toolkit.

Bolster your knowledge with evidence

Learn how to resolve policy challenges using research-backed approaches.

Learn from leaders in the field

This workshop is facilitated by widely published researcher, political and policy commentator, senior lecturer in politics and international relations and author Dr Zareh Ghazarian.
