Degree: Executive Fellows Program

Fields of study: Leadership, public value, media and international relations, service delivery, organisational culture.

Description: ANZSOG's Executive Fellows Program (EFP) is an intensive, three-week residential program for senior executives to develop their adaptive capacity to lead public sector organisations, providing a rare opportunity for focused learning and reflection. The EFP looks at the interactive dynamics faced by public sector leaders and explores how to better respond to competing requirements, including how to analyse concepts, frameworks and techniques to frame discussion, planning and strategic action.

Degree: Towards Strategic Leadership

Fields of study: Strategic leadership, leadership development, innovation.

Description: ANZSOG's Towards Strategic Leadership (TSL) program is a unique two-week program that helps emerging public service leaders develop the qualities needed to thrive in a senior executive role: a strategic outlook, political astuteness, personal resilience and the capacity to reflect and learn continuously. TSL encourages participants to identify personal and institutional strengths and weaknesses, understand their personal leadership styles, develop reflective and strategic thinking, and discover tools to discern and address the urgent and strategically important tasks, with an emphasis on integrating them into their everyday practices.
